

Zoey Y. Zhao

Ms. ZHAO is a graduate of Nankai University Law School, holds a Master's degree in Economic Law. She is qualified as a legal professional in China and holds the position of Company Secretary at the Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

With over a decade of experience in asset management and investment management, she has served as a director and held senior management positions in multiple listed companies in China and Hong Kong.

Currently, she holds the position of Responsible Officer at a Hong Kong-based asset management company and serves as an executive director of a listed company in Hong Kong.